Thomas Fuller

Angie Rakes, representing Pi Kappa Phi, and her escort Steve Pollack.

Representing the Lacrosse Club, Marcia Farrar is escorted by Dan Uzzle.

Amy Burch, an excited first runner up, and Jenny Yeshnick who tied for third place.

An unforgettable moment for Jani Joram, Sigma Pi's representative, as she is crowned the 1981 Homecoming Queen.

What a better way to spend a beautiful autumn afternoon but with old friends, good spirits and on Elon victory.

Daring smiles from Tracy Trimmer, Sigma's representative, and her escort Keith Wells.

Cathedrals, Cathedrals, and more. . . .

Ann and Ashley relax by the hot spring boths in the Roman City of Bath.

Henry and Ernie pose for a snap shot at Anne Hathaway's cottage outside Stratford-on-Avon.

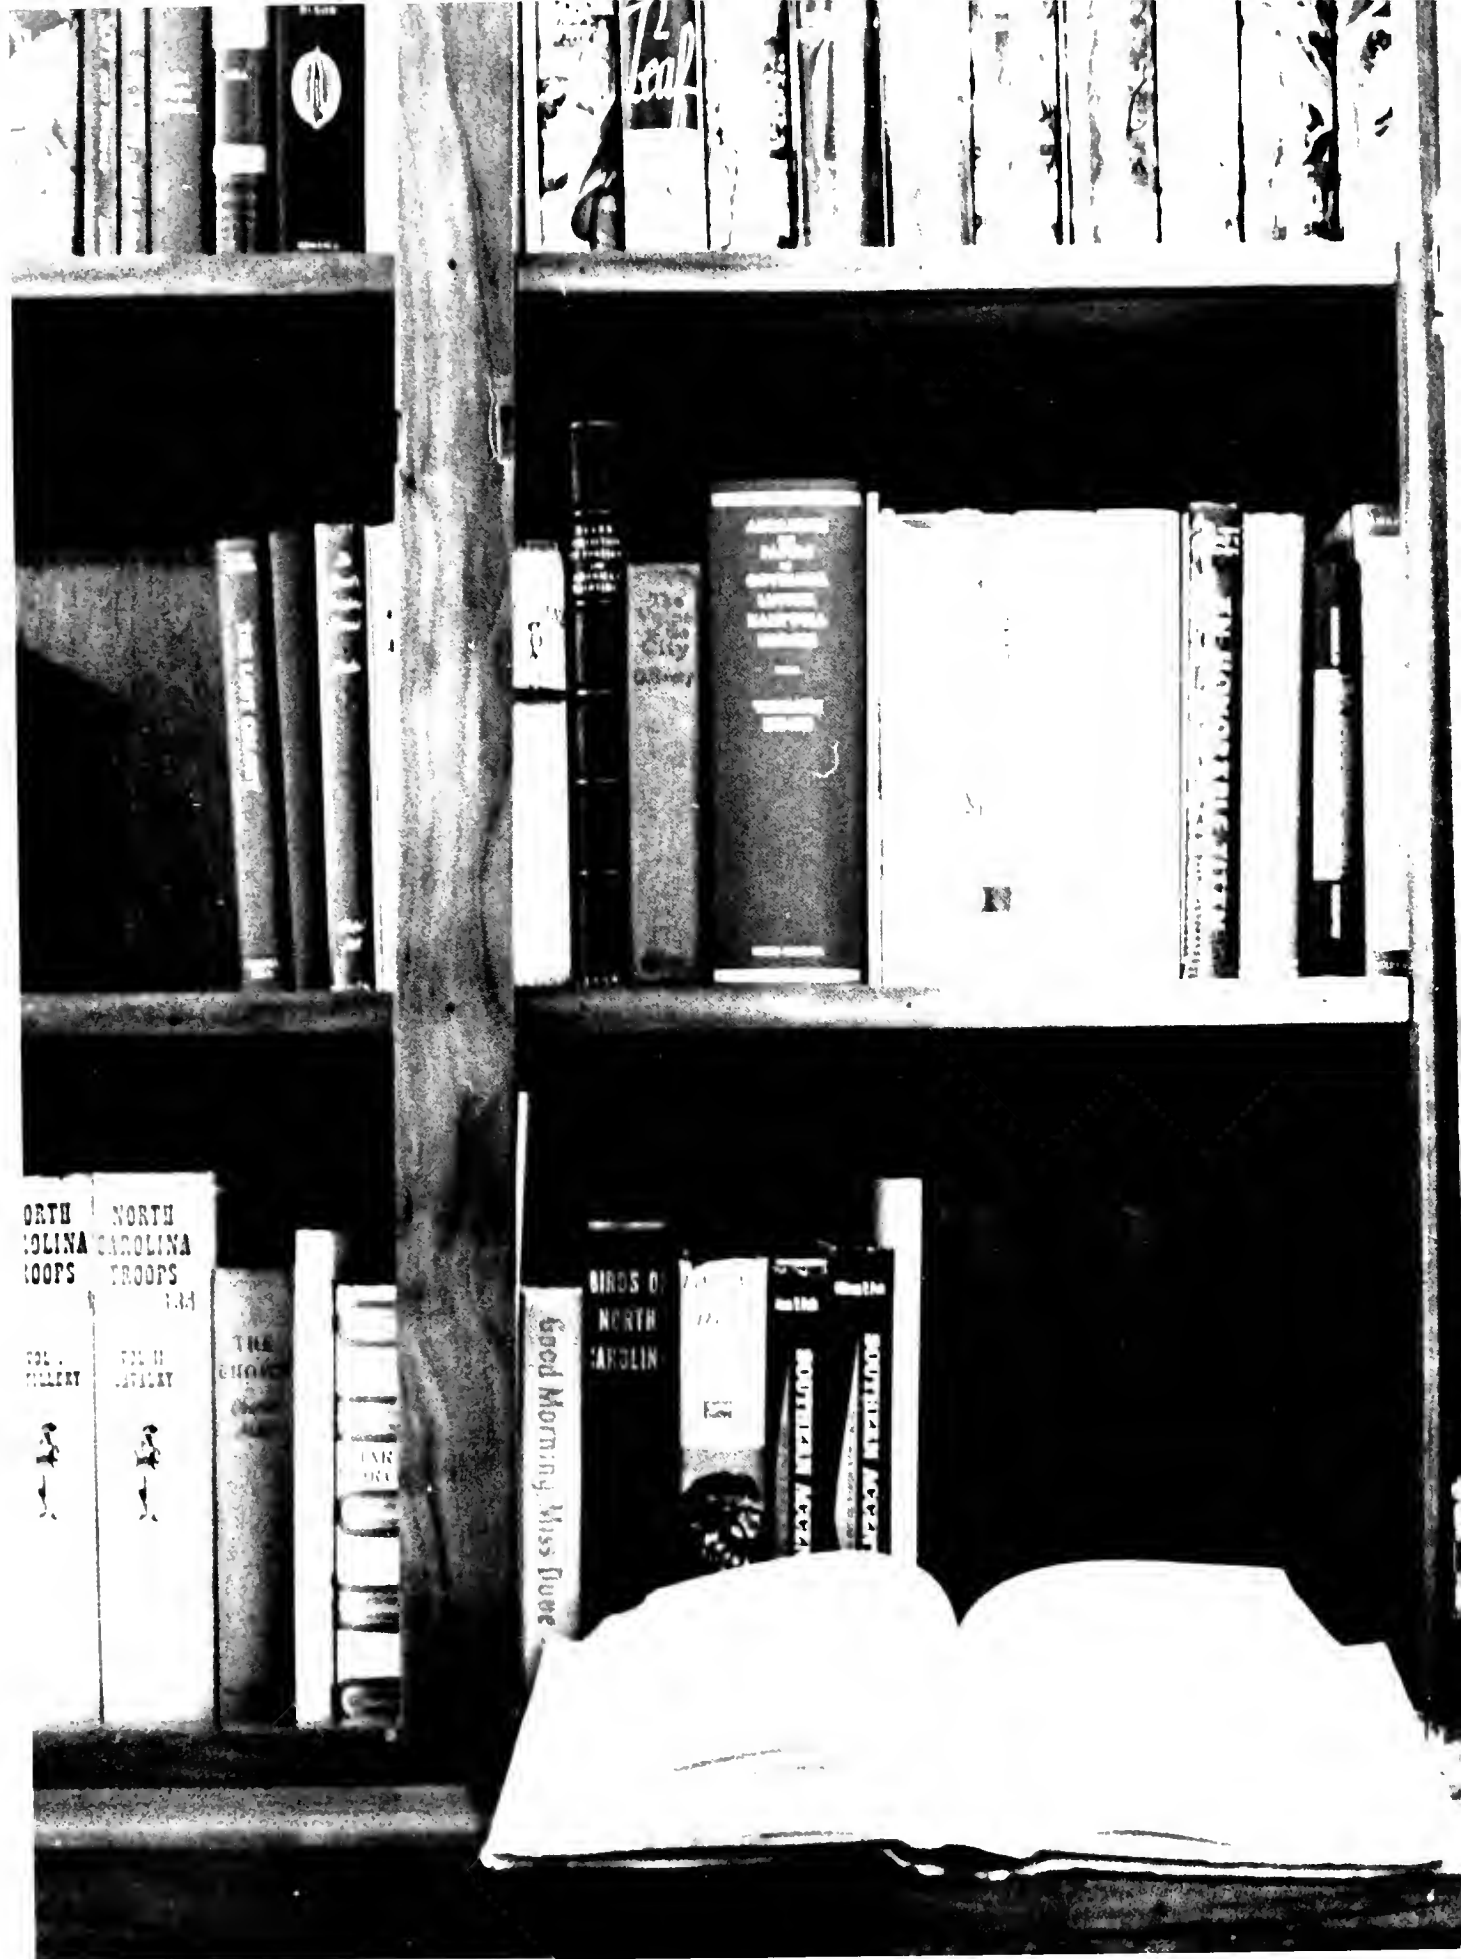

Envision this — the occasion is New Year's Eve; 84 anxious people have boarded a 747 en route to London, England and there they will spend the next three weeks acquainting themselves with the European way of life. They will visit Windsor Castle, Stratford-on-Avon and the infamous palace of Queen Elizabeth. They will learn to drink tea, lager, mead and whatever else seems to be the spirit of the day. They will quickly learn to use the underground, look right instead of left when crossing the street and spend their pounds wisely. They will learn much about the history, the culture and the current events of England; thus worldly knowledge, a fabulous experience and many new friends will be the product when these merry travellers are homeward bound.

Pendulum advisor retires

—by Loukia Louka

Dr. Mary Ellen Priestley has retired from the Pendulum after seven-and-a-half years as its adviser. Priestley's resignation became official with the publication of today's issue.

Commenting on her time with the newspaper, Dr. Priestley said, "It's been fun and a real joy to help establish an ongoing newspaper at this college. Although I will not be advising The Pendulum, I will have an avid interest in its future.

Pendulum Honors: For three years the Pendulum has been judged first class by the Associated Collegiate Press at the University of Minnesota School of Journalism.

"We send to them two copies of every issue at the end of each semester. The paper is evaluated in minute detail, in competition with comparable U.S. college newspapers."

Priestley continues, "There is one higher honor I'd like to see the Pendulum achieve, and that is All-American. It is the highest rank in quality for journalism for college and high school newspapers."

Priestley points out that one problem for a small school newspaper is the large turnover in staff. By the end of the spring semester a staff has become strong, but when a new fall semester starts, some staff members either have graduated or have left the staff. This lack of continuity can reduce quality.

"The staff is trying to get more carry-over to build on what they've got. They are better and stronger than they have ever been before. The staff is more cooperative and trained in their work," Priestley believes.

Aspirations for the Future: Not only the staff, but also, the English/Journalism department grows stronger each year. "We've already had eight graduates in English/Journalism and this is only the second year for this degree."

"Bob Nowell, who is taking over as adviser to the Pendulum, comes to us with good training and experience. My hope for the future is that the Pendulum and the journalism department continue to grow and improve," Priestley says.

"We want our undergraduates to be just as good as those from journalism departments of large universities. There are certain advantages here: students get more personal attention, help and encouragement, chances to work in practicums, internships and cooperative education in this field."

"Most large university schools of journalism can't do this. They do not have sufficient places in the community to provide places for internships."

Priestley hopes that in the non-too-distant future, the college will have a production room with up-to-date equipment, like video display terminals and phototypesetters.

If these improvements are made, Priestley believes, "our journalism students, and the Pendulum staff can get experience they will be using when they get a job on a newspaper or magazine."

Priestley adds that Hinton Press has always been sympathetic with low budgets and has adjusted prices accordingly. "This year we have a higher quality paper. The type and photographs are cleaner and sharper. Therefore, the whole paper looks better."

"Growth has come about with the cooperation of the administration and SGA, who have given us a budget to accommodate a large size paper and greater coverage of news, features and photos."

Coach Jerry Tolley compared the Elon Fightin' Christian's second consecutive NAIA football championship with going to Disney World. The second time around is not quite as exciting, but still very gratifying.

In bitterly cold Memorial Stadium on Dec. 19, the Fightin' Christians beat Pittsburg State (Kansas) 3-0 in a fierce defensive battle.

The Elon kicking game proved to be a deciding factor. Defensive MVP Chris Worst set up the game's only scoring by blocking a Gene Wayenburg punt, which Kenny Angel recovered on the Gorillas' eight-yard line.

Elon ran three plays, keeping the ball in the middle of the field. With 11:59 left in the game, Phil Renn kicked what proved to be the winning field goal, a 23-yard effort.

Pittsburg State Coach Ron Randleman praised the Elon kicking game. "Their punter (Kelly Stanley) did a fine job (eight punts for a 41.5 average.) And of course, their kicker is experienced while ours is a freshman."

Randleman was referring to PSU's Dave Hammons, who missed four field goals. "They were all telling me to keep my head," Hammons said, "and not get down on myself. I tried, but ..."

The statistics tell the story. The Christian offense generated only 140 total yards. Quarterback John Bangley passed for 87 of those yards. The Suffolk, VA, junior completed six of 16 passes.

"They are the best defensive team we've faced all year," Bangley said. "We lacked the consistency we needed to move the ball."

Bangley went on to say that the slick, icy field conditions contributed to the slow offense. As for the eight fumbles, neither Bangley nor Coach Tolley could explain why they were so plentiful. Bangley could only comment that "they didn't make footballs with handles on them."

After offensive MVP Phil Renn gave Elon a second national title with one swing of his leg, the Gorillas had one more chance.

Bangley was run out-of-bounds with less than two minutes left on third-and-long, but PSU linebacker Jeff Cooper was penalized for a late hit. That gave the Christians a first down and enabled them to run out the clock.

Coach Tolley said that the second crown was "very satisfying. I told the players before the game that I wanted this one more than anything in the world."

Even though the game was televised live on WFMY-TV, 3,075 fans braved the 30-degree cold to see the game.

In addition, the USA Cable network covered the game, that was to be rebroadcast to more than 90,000 home throughout the country.

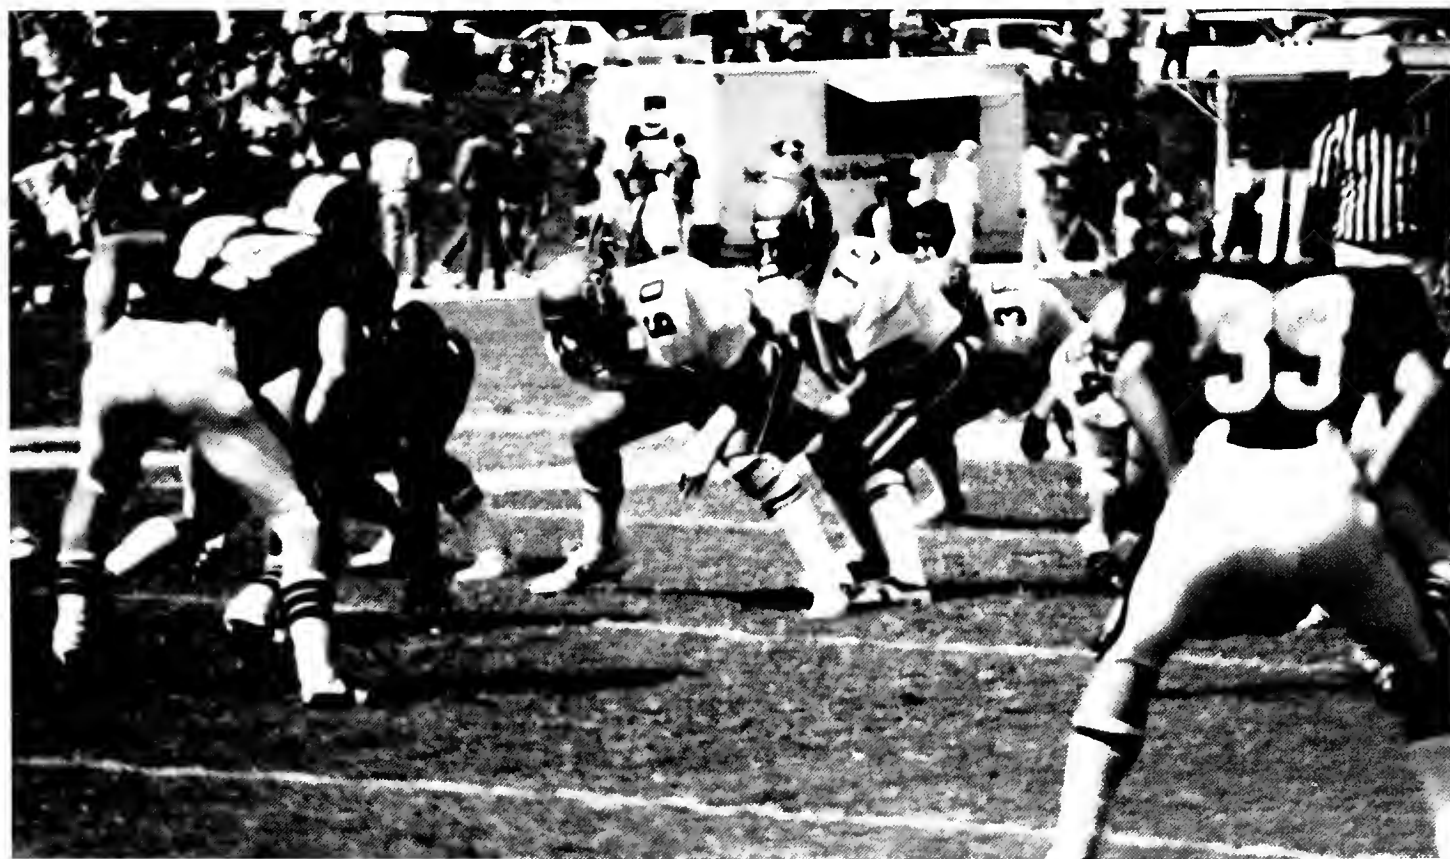

Coach Tolley pointed out that the exposure would not hurt recruiting. "It will help," he said. "We don't lose that many boys this year. We lose Tony Pethel on offense. And on defense we lose Chris Worst, Adrian Robertson, Marshall Kirby, Charles Womack and Ernie Tootoo."

Reflecting on the kicking game, Tolley said that because of the tough defenses, "We were willing to try a 52-yard field goal. Renn's won a lot of them."

"When we went for the field goal, there was no doubt in my mind that we would make it," Tolley said. "I was more concerned with the snap and put-down than with the kick."

Senior nose guard Chris Worst summed up the team's feelings when he said, "We know we would face some adversity. We had to go out and stop them. We take a lot of pride in our defense, and we played our best game today."

High Hopes For Basketball Season This Winter

Despite losing three starters to graduation, Elon basketball coach Bill Morningstar has some high hopes for a lineup that features several new faces.

Morningstar hopes to improve on the Fighting Christians' 14-16 record of a year ago. Elon placed second in the Carolinas Conference in 1980-81 with a 9-5 mark and Morningstar is confident that a first place finish can be achieved this season.

Elon's most immediate problem will be making up for the loss of starting forwards Lee Allison and Greg Dawson. Allison, a perennial All-Conference and All-District selection throughout his career, averaged 18 points and 5 rebounds per game last season while Dawson closed out his career averaging 12 points and 4 rebounds per contest. Gary Shuffler, a 6-6, 200 lb. sophomore from Valdese, appears to be one of the most likely candidates. Shuffler averaged 6 points and 2 rebounds per contest in limited action last season.

The center position is also up for grabs with the graduation of David Mantipty, who served as captain along with Allison last year while contributing an average of 7 points and 3 rebounds per game. The brother combination of Pat and Paul Rhodes from Luray, Virginia, will be the main contenders for the open spot.

The Fighting Christians' backcourt will once again be a strong point, with senior Drew VanHorn returning to pilot the Elon offense. VanHorn netted an average of 10 points per game while also averaging 6 assists. He will be flanked by either Jay Johnson, a 6-3, 190 lb. senior, or Ty Stout, a 5-8, 150 lb. sophomore.

Elon will be greatly aided by the addition of several first year players to an already strong bench. Peter Dolan, a 6-8, 220 lb. transferee from Western Carolina and Jay Lee, a 6-9, 220 lb. freshman from Burlington could challenge for front court starting berths while Al Beck, a 5-11, 160 lb. native of Burlington, and Vic Wiedeman, a 6-2, 180 lb. freshman from Haddonfield, New Jersey, will provide added back-court depth. Mel Melton, a 6-3, 175 lb. sophomore transfer from Brevard Junior College, native Greensborian, also joins the squad after achieving Conference Player of the year and All-State honors last season at Brevard. Also, Roger Norris, 6-4, 190 lb. freshman comes to Elon after a very successful career at East Burke High School.

Soccer

Booters Have Firepower

Elon soccer coach Steve Ballard will be looking to improve last season's 8-7 overall record while holding on to the Carolinas Conference Co-Championship that the Fighting Christians claimed with a 6-1 conference mark.

Elon lost six games by one goal a year ago, a situation Ballard hopes to remedy with an offense that contains plenty of firepower.

In goalie positions will be senior Kevin McCauley from Rensselear, NY. McCauley is a tri-captain and last year made All-Conference. Bob Ramsey, Cherry Hill, NJ; Scott Reynolds, Rensselear, NY and Bob Strong from Port Jefferson, NY are starting returnees at fullback for the Fighting Christians. Scott Spada, a sophomore from Bricktown, NJ is counted on by Ballard to work into a starting role at fullback.

Leading the returnees at midfield is Balston Lake, NY player Chris Crusan and a junior Alexandria, VA native Luis Pages. Starting forwards Nathan Pulkingham, Burlington, NC and Jeff Shields of Hillsborough, NC lead a strong Elon attack.

Ballard recruited a number of players that he is counting on to contribute to Elon's side in 1981.

Leading the newcomers is Virginia All-Stater Chip Calloway, Woodbridge, VA at forward and Sag Harboro, NY halfback C.J. Rossi. Other top recruits include goalies Mike Antczar, Edison, NJ, and George Martinez of Leominster, MA, while Fulton-Montgomery transfer Mike Glover, Baltimore, MD product, Dan Schmidt, and Anthony Sherwood from Virginia Beach, VA; Randy Madge and Jon Hasbrook from Brick, NJ; Charlie Ganim from Missouri City, TX; and Jay Chisolm of New York City are outstanding newcomers. Sean Flanagan, a forward from Greenlawn, NY should see plenty of action for Elon.

Diamonders Could Be Better Than Last Year

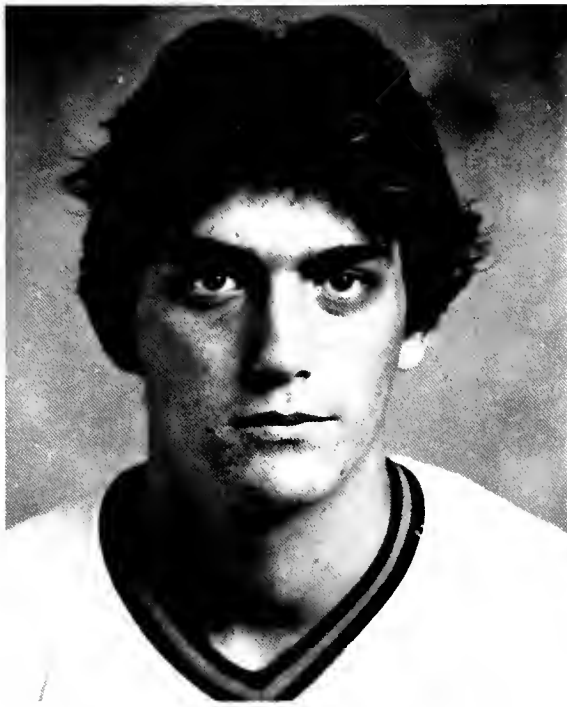

The Fighting Christians earned national recognition in 1981 with a 39-8 record while finishing second in the Carolina Conference with a 9-5 mark. Coach Bob McBee is depending on an experienced and powerful lineup to gain Elon further prominence in 1982.

Craig Newton, Saunderstown, RI, and Darrell Wallace, Rockingham, NC will again provide most of the offensive firepower while giving the Fighting Christians added speed. Frank Manship, Rockingham, NC and Joe Garbarino, Binghampton, NY also return to the Elon lineup and will challenge for starting roles.

The Fighting Christian pitching staff remains strong with Billy Martin of High Point, NC and Mark Hawkins of Bound Brook, NJ, among the returning hurlers. Mark Turner, Richmond, VA, and Alan Pritchard, E. Greenwich, RI, give Elon a dependable bullpen that will be boosted by the addition of some new arms.

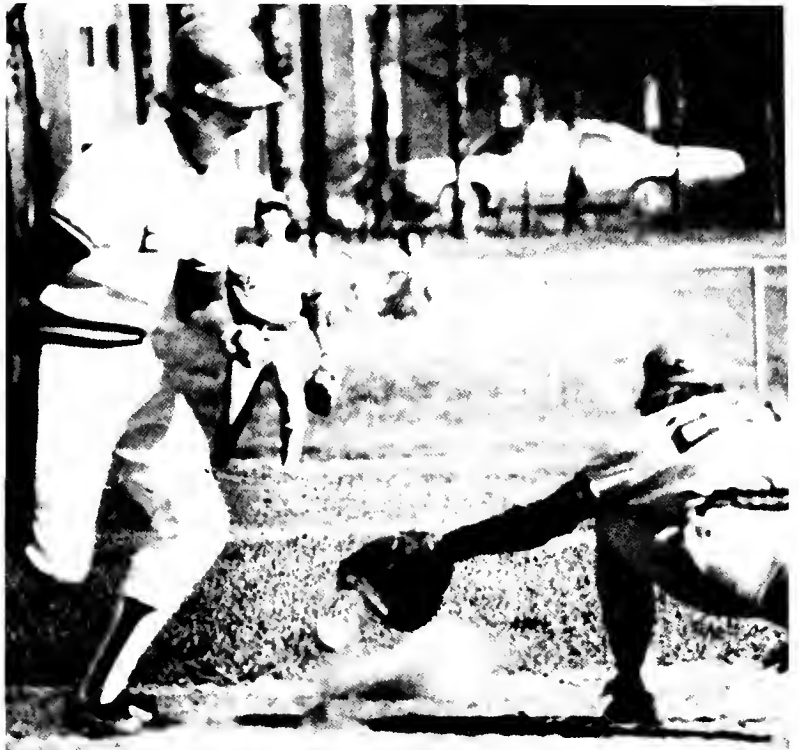

The Fighting Christians were ranked in the NAIA's top ten and McBee feels that Elon can advance even further in 1982 with some dependable veterans and top prospects on the squad.

Decker All-American Linkster

Keith Decker, Elon's All-American linkster.

Behind a returning group of experienced golfers and with the emergence of a few newcomers, Coach Bill Morningstar hopes to return the Fightin' Christians to the top of the Carolinas Conference and District 26 in golf in 1982.

Keith Decker and Danny Graham return to the Elon lineup and form the nucleus of the squad. Carmen Pascarella and Chris Keeley continue to improve each season and should be keys to the Fighting Christians '82 success. David Dean of Richmond, Virginia, adds further experience and consistency to the team.

"Consistency is one area we will be looking to improve this year," says Morningstar. "Often players have good rounds on different days. We need to have good performances from the team as a whole at each tournament."

Aiding Morningstar in that cause will be a group of first year golfers. Scott Carney joins the squad from Glenville, West Virginia, and Greg Haley comes to Elon from Potomac, Maryland. Four Virginia natives will wear the maroon and gold this season. The brother combination of Jimmy and Billy Merriman hail from Collinsville, along with high school teammate Barney Pilson. Morningstar will be depending on Daniel Thore of Reidsville to continue his golfing success. Thore was an All-State selection in high school.

"Our competition continues to get tougher every year," admits Morningstar, "but we've done well against some top grade competition in tournaments. I'm looking forward to a fine season in '82."

After finishing fourth in the nation in 1981, Morningstar hopes his linksters can capture the National championships in 1982 which will be played at Alamance Country Club, the home of the Fightin' Christians.

Men's Tennis On the Right Road

Despite the loss of some key starters, Elon tennis coach Danny Morrison enters the 1981 campaign with a strong lineup that includes some new faces.

Greensboro native Steve Rickard, Elon's only returning letterman, hopes to better last season's mark of 7-15 in singles action and 13-8 in doubles. Rickard will be counted on to provide both experience and leadership on a young Fighting Christian squad.

Keat Alvis, Mike Bestler, Jack Brady and Wayne Clifton all from Virginia will attempt to fill the void left by graduated starters Bill Day and Jeff Johnson. Freshmen Chris Foard, Max Henderson and Curtis Lester will also join the Elon lineup along with David Virag and Robert Woffard.

Jeff Green will see more playing time this season after posting a 0-1 mark in limited action last year.

The Fighting Christians made much progress in 1981, placing fifth in the conference tournament and eighth in the District 26 tournament. Elon had the first winning season, a 10-8, in five years — many of the losses by close margins. With the addition of some promising prospects as well as the leadership of some returners, Morrison has the Fighting Christians on the road to a long awaited conference championship.

Netters To Be Improved

The Elon women's tennis team enjoyed a fine 9-6 campaign a year ago and coach Karen Carden is depending on her returning starters to better that record this season as the Fighting Christians enter the race for the Carolinas Conference crown.

Senior Mary Beth Hughes heads an Elon lineup that lost just one player to graduation. Hughes, a Martinsville, Va., native, had a 12-8 total in overall singles last season. Amy Burch, from Woodstock, Va., posted a 9-9 record in her first season and should improve with experience, as will junior Rhonda Penson, Mt. Holly, N. C., who netted a 7-9 record. Senior Karen Wall, Reidsville, N.C., will try to up her 1981 9-9 record in her last season at Elon.

A Tough Act To Follow

Standing: Susan Overby, Donna Trollinger, Susan Wilson, Jeanie Hairston, Lori Smith, Vanessa Corbett, Renate Costner. Kneeling: Sherri Brothers, Anne Beeson, Jade Nicholas, Nuggie Dixon, Phylis Wardlaw, Kim Smith.

After compiling a 29-4 record and capturing the Carolinas Conference championship with a 6-1 mark last year, Elon women's basketball coach Mary Jackson will have a hard act to follow in 1981-82.

Jackson appears ready to defend the crown with all but one of her starting squad returning.

Seniors Vanessa Corbett of Yanceyville, NC and Jeannie Hairston of Greensboro, NC both All-Conference and All-State selections, will return at the forward spots after fine '80-81 campaigns. Corbett averaged 21.1 points per game to lead the team while pulling down an average of 11 rebounds per contest. Hairston averaged 11.4 points per game along with 10 rebounds.

The Fighting Christians will miss Lou Williamson in the backcourt this season; however, Renate Costner, a 5-10, 120 lb. sophomore from Graham, NC appears ready to take over the position after an impressive rookie season in which she averaged seven points and three rebounds per game. Junior Nuggie Dixon, Wilmington, NC returns at the other guard position after her best year ever in '80-81. Dixon netted an average of 20 points per contest and seven rebounds while leading Elon in steals for the season with 64.

The center position will be filled by either Corbett or 6-3 junior Jennifer Kelly, Milford, CT, as Jackson alternates offenses. Freshman Donna Trollinger from Graham, NC, could also challenge for a starting berth in the backcourt.

Co-Captain: Jeannie Hairston.

Co-Captain: Vanessa Corbett.

Experience and Talent Equal Success

This year's Volleyball team suffered a difficult season. Losing key matches early in the season slowed the team down considerably. Most of these early season losses were close matches lasting through three games, and often extra points.

We needed to improve our team play this season said Coach Karen Cardin. This year we emphasized the fundamentals. We lost some close matches this season and we're hoping to get a few of these back next season.

An experienced lineup aided Cardin in achieving her pre-season goals. The Fighting Christians were led by returning starter Jeannie Hairston, Greensboro, and Barbra Carter, Elkin, N.C., while other returnees included Pam Moore of Greensboro, Rhonda Penson of Mt. Holly, NC, and Carol McCall of Dallas, NC.

Elon also added a few new names to its arsenal. Setter Susan Overby of Durham, NC, and Phyllis (Dee-Dee) Wardlaw a transfer from High Point enter the roster along with freshman Alicia Gaddy and Robin Wheeler, both from Winston-Salem, Diane of Greensboro, and Maureen Sweeney of Rockville, MD. Much of the team's success was due in part to the efforts of Diana Curry (Mgr.) and Susan Burelson (Scorekeeper).

The veterans and the rookies alike combined to challenge all opponents in true Elon style.

Coach Karen Cardin gives the team a pep talk.

Jeannie Hairston bumps the ball back to the other team.

Carol McCall and Pam Moore listen to Coach Cardin's game plan.

Elon Track Strong in 1982

The Elon track team enjoyed a very successful season in 1981 with a second place finish in the Carolinas Conference and a sixth place ranking in District 26 action.

Johnson is booking for an even better performance in '82 with a number of strong players returning.

Danny Scales, Madison, N. C., returns after an impressive campaign a year ago, along with Fred Jordan, Staunton, Va., and Barry Kyle, Martinsville, Va. Other returnees to a lineup that produced nine new records in 1981 include Danny Hopper, Madison, NC and Ray Hadley, Burlington, N. C., Kenneth Rogers of Oxford, N. C., and Chris McCauley, Staunton, Va.

The Fighting Christians will again be facing top-notch competition in the coming season as perennial foes such as Pembroke State, Atlantic Christian, High Point and Catawba continue to improve also. However, with most of his lineup returning with added experience, Johnson is confident that the Fighting Christians will be at the front of the race for the Carolinas Conference title.

Women's Softball Expect Good Season

Carol McCall, Jade Nicholas, Barbara Carter, Jennifer Dean, Pam Moore, Ann Beeson, Melinda Brown, Susan Wilson, Nuggie Dixon, Renata Costner, Nancy Steinback, Susan Overby, Lou Williamson, Kim Smith.

The Fighting Christians enjoyed their finest season in recent years in 1981 with a 30-10 overall record while claiming the Carolinas Conference championship.

The Elon offense will be powered by returning stars Nuggie Dixon, Wilmington, N. C., at second base and Gina Rhew, Elon College, N. C. at third. Outfielder Barby Adcock, Roxboro, N. C., also returns to give the Fighting Christians power and strong fielding. All-Conference selection Susan Wilson, Graham, N. C., will lead the Elon mound corps again in 1982.

With the majority of her lineup coming back, Coach Mary Jackson foresees another fine season for the Fighting Christians as they defend the conference title and strive for national recognition.

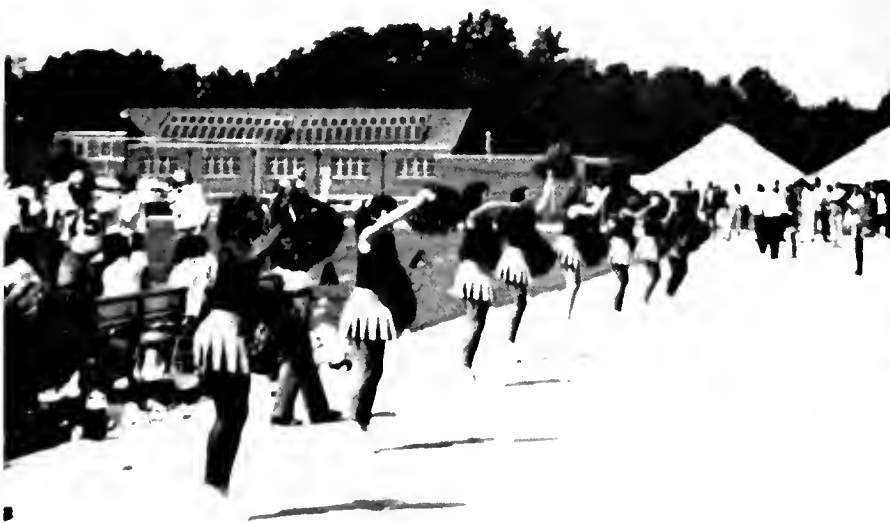

Bernadette Carter cheers the football team on to victory.

The cheerleaders are elated after another Elon touchdown.

Go, Fight, Win, Elon

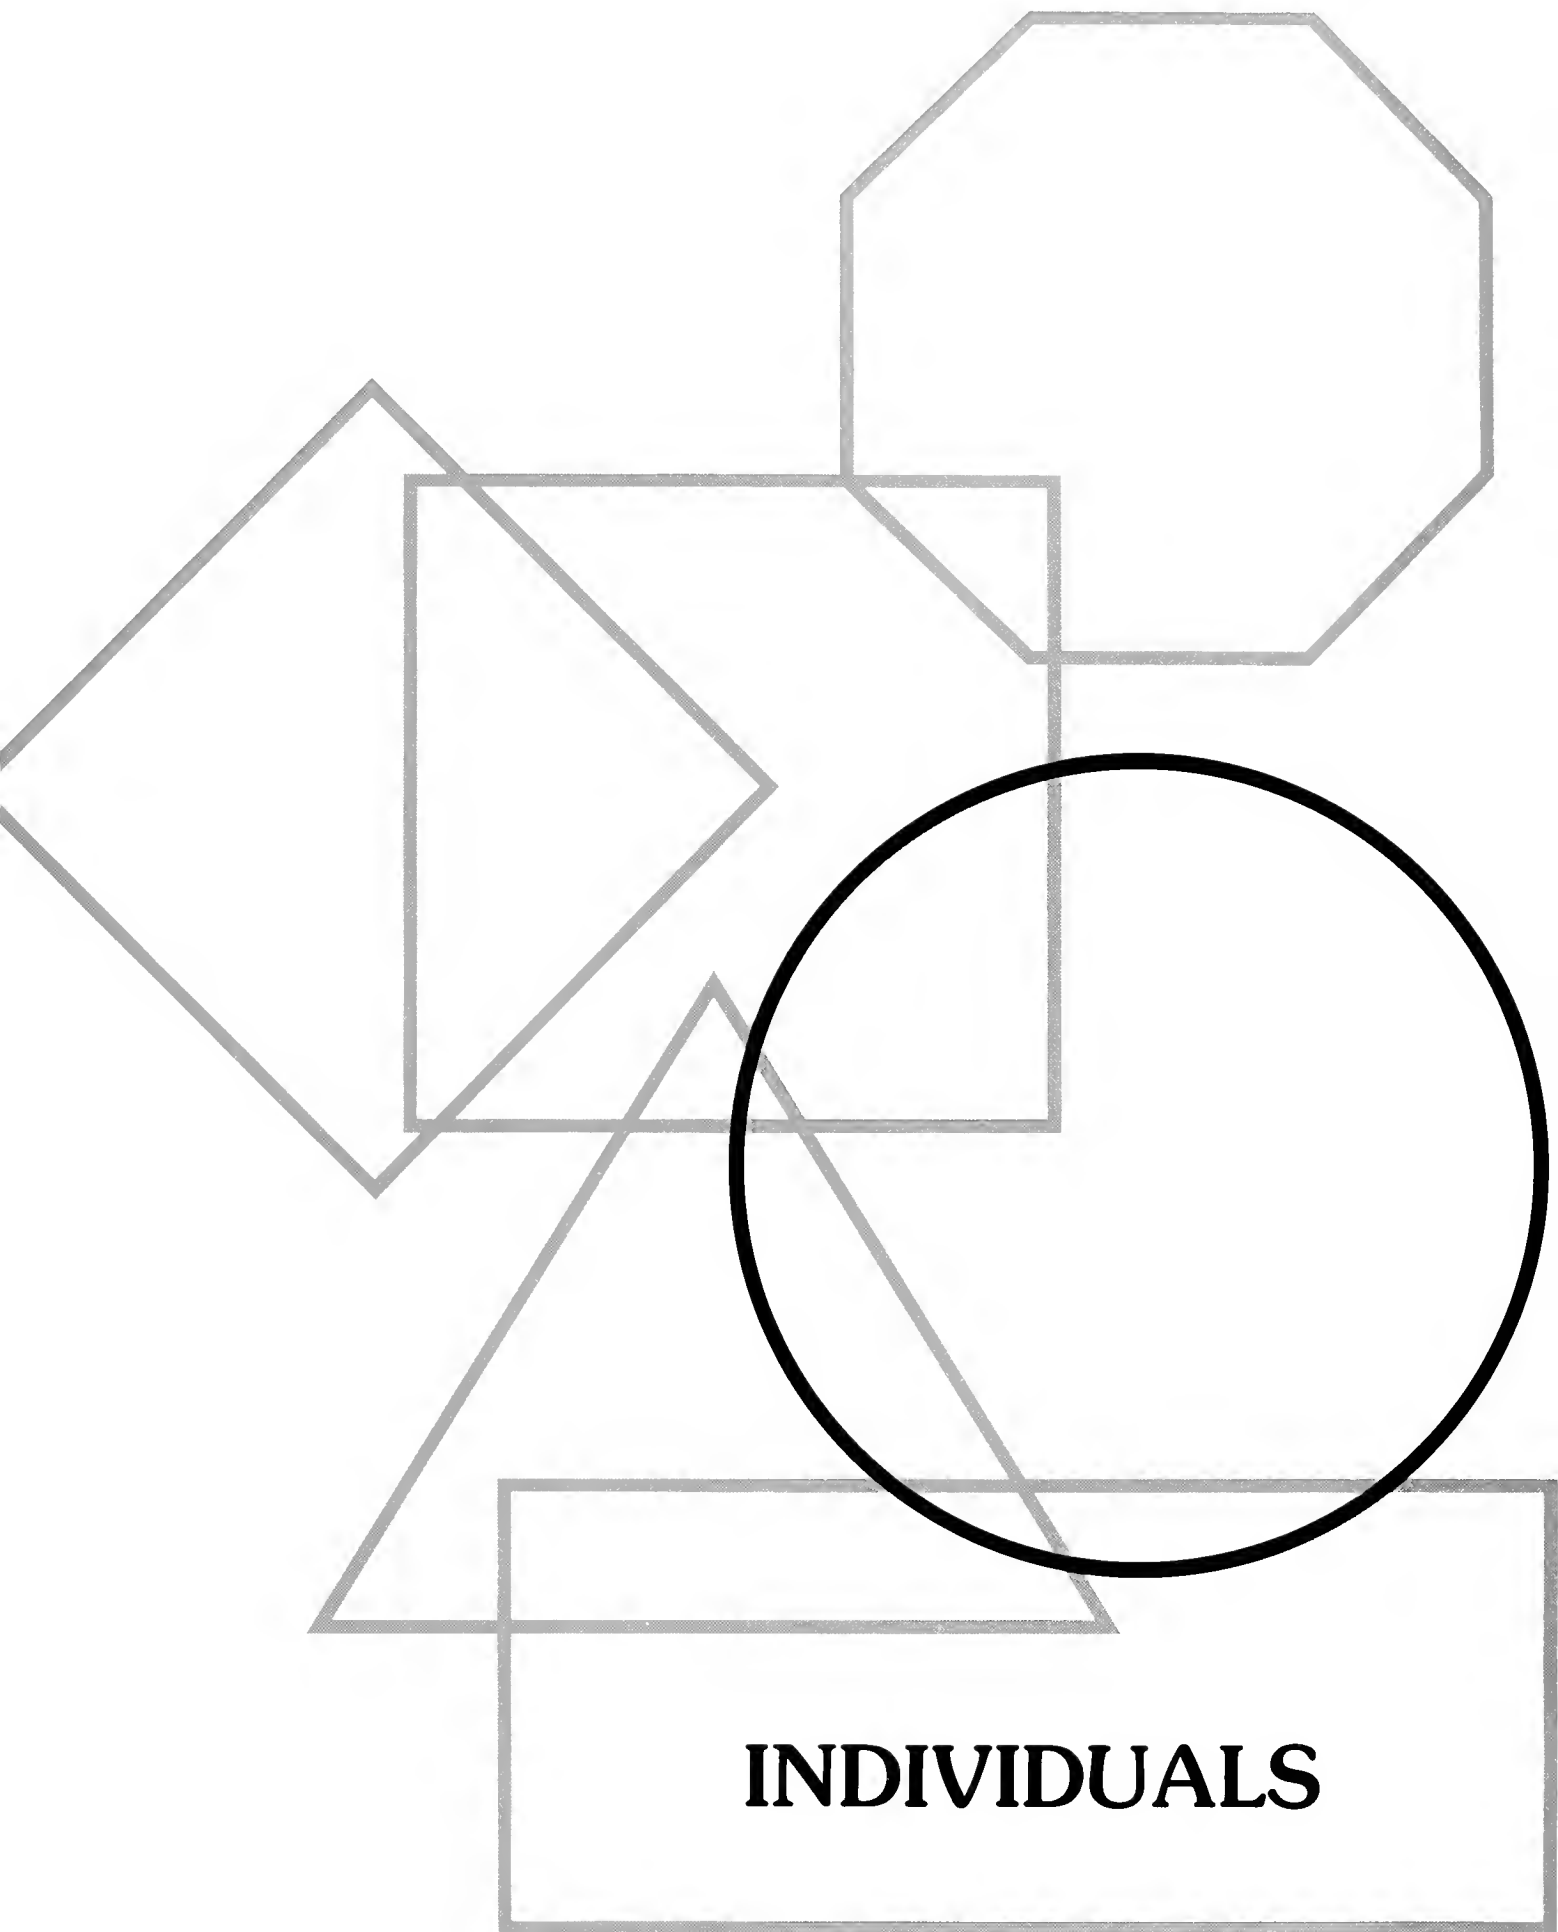

Aren't they cute! Susan Waff and Jimmy Greene take a break from vigorous cheering.

things to come . . .

Detached and striped away,
The ivy and original wall depart.
What once seemed sturdy
Is reevaluated and torn apart.
Change is inevitable, but along
With change comes progress and growth.
Dismantling the old while reaffirming
The new, accompanies the shape of Things to come.
